REPORTING A CRIME TO THE UNIVERSITY

WHAT AM I OBLIGED TO DO?

- You have the right to report the crime to the university.

WHAT AM I OBLIGED TO DO?

- You have the right to report the crime to the university.

WHAT AM I OBLIGED TO DO?

- You have the right to report the crime to the university.

WHAT ARE MY OPTIONS FOR REPORTING A CRIME?

- Filing a Report with Law Enforcement - If you are the victim of a crime, you can contact the police department as they will be able to begin an investigation and collect important evidence which may be critical in a criminal process. They can also assist you with seeking medical treatment and will help you determine ways that the university can assist you.

- Have Staff Assist you in Filing a Report with Law Enforcement – If you would like assistance while speaking to law enforcement about any situation, faculty and staff at the university have been trained to assist you in filing a report. Any faculty or staff member you feel comfortable speaking to can accompany you through the process of filing a police report.

- Report Only to the University – If you do not wish to pursue criminal charges, you are encouraged to speak with any member of the faculty or staff, who are trained to assist you in filing a report with the university. Whether or not you choose to file a report with Law Enforcement, the University will offer a variety of options for assistance to you and will work to address any factors which may have led to this crime.
WHO CAN I REPORT A CRIME TO?
- The Department of Public Safety
- The Office of Diversity and Equity
- The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Any Member of the University Faculty or Staff

WHO CAN I SPEAK TO CONFIDENTIALLY?
- If you wish to speak to someone about a crime you have experienced confidentially, you are encouraged to speak to the staff at Student Health Services and Counseling and Psychological Services in the Student Health Center. These are the only individuals on campus who are not legally required to inform the university about crimes they become aware of while working in their official capacity.

WHAT INFORMATION WILL BE SHARED WITH THE UNIVERSITY?
- If you share information with any faculty or staff member, they will be required to disclose that information to the Title IX coordinator via a standardized form. This information will be used to offer you resources and services and may be used as part of an official investigation by the university. You may be contacted by an investigator to discuss your experience as the university works to prevent such crimes in the future. You may request that your experience be handled confidentially, you are encouraged to speak to the Associate Chancellor for Institutional Diversity, however she may not be able to honor this request if doing so might put other members of the campus community at risk.

LEGAL STEPS

THE IMPORTANCE OF PRESERVING EVIDENCE
- When a crime of sexual assault, domestic violence, or stalking occurs the collection of evidence is critical and must be done in a timely manner. Evidence related to the crime can show investigators what happened during the crime, how it happened, and possibly who committed the crime. The sooner evidence is collected, the more likely it is to be useful in a criminal investigation. The evidence is stored for a period of time at the Illinois State Police Crime Lab, and can be used should you choose to press charges, either immediately, or in the future.

OBTAINING AN ORDER OF PROTECTION
